HIGHLIGHTS

Dedication

To our Parents - who have understood, when all our world seemed to go wrong; who have assisted us with patience of gold; who have listened to our complaints with a smile and with comforting words; who have encouraged us whenever we were disheartened - we dedicate this volume of our annual with all our love and with sincere appreciation.

Douglas Raper

In loving memory we dedicate this page to Douglas Raper. Douglas died during our seventh year in school, but he ever lives in the hearts of his classmates.

Once more in windy March
The kites are flying high.
I love to watch them as they Make their way up to the sky.

The flowers are blooming too,
In colors bright and gay.
They bring great beauty to us all
Every passing day.

Of all the months, sometimes, I think
March is the very best.
Because it brings flowers back again
After a long winter's rest.

By Douglas Raper

MR. FRANKLIN R. JONES, Principal

Principal's Message

Congratulations to the annual staff, its editors, reporters, and patrons, who have contributed to make this the finest annual ever presented to the Wakelon Public Schools. The enjoyment afforded the students and friends who peruse the pages of this yearbook will provide partial payment for the arduous task of preparing this collection of materials. This album of pictures, reminiscence, and information will serve as a record of beginning for the fine Senior Class and disclosure of splendid work yet to be done as clearly indicated here. It is my wish that the future activity of this year's graduating class be commensurate with the aspirations and ideals now envisioned.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

From Wakelon School we now are leaving;
Silently now our hearts are grieving.
We've said good-by to friends so dear
And to the school we've held so dear.

Our different paths take different courses;
We'll carry our loads like knights on horses;
And all along our life-long journey,
We'll know that God goes on this journey.

But ere we leave you far behind,
We'll think of you a lot of times.
We'll have your mem'ries, heart and mind,
And ne'er forget the good old times.

And as we bid our last good-by
And deeply breathe a sad'ning sigh,
We know our love will never die -
As we bid our last good-by.

Rose Chamblee
Class Poet

CLASS SONG

Wakelon High we offer love to you -
And we pledge allegiance ere anew.
We will ever cherish and hold dear
Your ideals so bright and clear.

Wisdom, courage, visions that are fair -
All are ours because for us you care -
Deep enshrined within our memory, Wakelon School, you'll ever be.

You have guided us along the way -
Truth and light you've shown us every day.
Class of '56 will ever be Grateful, Wakelon School, to thee.

CLASS MOTTO

Give to the world the best you have and the best will come back to you.

Senior Class History

It was on the bright morning of September 18, 1944, that we, the class of '56, a group of trembling, shy, young children, climbed upon the first step of our ladder toward graduation. Our fears were banished when we were met by our teachers, Mrs. Eva Page and Mrs. Lois Wall. With their patience and kind words, we finally learned to read, write, and do a little arithmetic.

At the end of the year, we were pleased to find that we were promoted to the second grade where we were greeted by the smiling faces of Miss Hardison and Mrs. McDevitt. During this year we improved in our reading, writing, and arithmetic, and began working on our spelling. This finished our second step on our ladder.

In the third grade, with Miss Rogers and Miss Yelverton as our teachers, we began having more homework. We remember the tough time we had learning the multiplication table. We also remember having contests on attendance and the section with the best percentage of attendance in a month was given a party by the other section.

On entering the fourth grade we thought we were quite smart and we admit that this year proved to be a big step up our ladder, for this was our first year upstairs and also our first year in geography. With the help of Mrs. Campbell and Miss Davis - now Mrs. Ben Thomas - we found the subject very interesting. The girls, especially, remember the happy hours spent in their straw play houses in the grove in front of the high school building.

In the fifth grade another subject was added, history. This year, as a health project, one section experimented with guinea pigs. This helped us realize the need of milk and proper care. After much studying under the leadership of Mrs. Gregory and Miss Jenkins, we made our grade.

Mrs. Wallace Chamblee and Mrs. Lee Currin were our teachers in the sixth grade. It was this year that the two sections became rivals in softball. This year we had white rats as a health project. After having many art lessons and learning a great deal of poetry, we were promoted.

On September 7, 1950, we entered junior high. With Mrs. F. E. Bunn and Mrs. Beasley as our teachers we plodded on. This year our hearts were saddened when one of our classmates, Douglas Raper, was hit by a baseball and died. During this year our hardest subject was English, but with the help of our teachers, we advanced to the eighth grade and to the high school building.

It took us some time to get used to the bell that rang each hour but we finally managed. In our Physical Education class, the two sections were mixed and we found out that there were some nice people in both sections. Under the guidance of Miss Gladys Baker and Miss Jean Little, we studied much about astronomy and flowers. We remember with a lot of pleasure our trips to the Governor's Mansion and to the Planetarium at Chapel Hill.

At last we became high school Freshmen. To be exact, the date was September 8, 1952. At first we feared we might do something wrong; but after being well informed by our homeroom teachers, Miss Blanche Gay and Miss Melba Strickland, we passed all our subjects and became sophomores. Mrs. Antonakos and Miss Walker, our homeroom teachers, kindly led us through that year. Some of our girls and two boys were chosen to serve as waitresses and waiters at the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom, which was the highlight of the year for some of us.

Even though we all agree that our Junior year wasn't too easy, it holds much excitement and many wonderful memories. Among those were: the magazine sale, our main money-making project of the year; Career Day, which helped us solve some of our problems about our future; the Junior Play, "The Ghost Parade," which was fun even though some of us admit that we had knocking knees that night; that long awaited day when we received our classrings; and the wonderful Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom that we gave. We would not forget that without the guidance of our wonderful sponsors, Mrs. Doris Privette and Miss Frances Walser, all those things would not have been possible.

Our Senior year, which we have just completed, holds memories which are dearest to us. The thrill of having everyone in the auditorium stand as we walked down the aisle; the success of our barbecue; the Senior Play, "Tattletale"; and our trip which proved to be highly educational as well as exciting. Now with graduation at hand, we should like to say thanks to our sponsors, Mrs. Doris Privette and Mr. Franklin R. Jones, and also to our parents for helping to make this year the success it has been.

With all these memories, and many others, forever in our hearts, with true devotion to our school, and with genuine appreciation for all it has meant in our lives, we close the pages of the history of the Class of '56 and take our leave from Wakelon.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1956 of Wakelon High School, on this twenty-fourth day of May of the same year, do solemnly declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all other testimonial writings heretofore made by us.

Article I. To our beloved school, we leave everlasting loyalty and our devotion.

Article II. To our parents, we give our devotion and appreciation for making our graduation possible. We hereby promise to try to live up to the ideals they have helped us set.

Article III. To the faculty, we leave our deepest and sincerest appreciation for their patience and guidance through the past years.

Article IV. To the Freshmen, we will our dignified ways.

Article V. To the Sophomores, we will the great honor of catering to the Seniors of 1957 in every way expected of them.

Article VI. To the Juniors, we will our honorable position as Seniors. We bequeath our intelligence, good manners, and special privileges to them.

Article VII. The Seniors bequeath individually the following things:

Alice Watkins' loud laugh to Betty Kimball. Nannie Vee Williams' artistic talent to Dorothy Smith. Dorothy Baker's giggles to Judy Hood. Harold Draughon's egotistical ways to Jimmy Hodge. Jenny Watkins' ability to play basketball to Peggy Richardson. Joe Pippin's ability to be a pest to Franklin Eddins. Linda Bailey leaves her 4-H awards to Judy Green. Billy Tant leaves his shortness to Charles Driver. Billy Etheridge's ability to do imitations goes to Mickey Phillips. Betty Baker's winning beauty to Kay Pate. Gene Parrish's singing ability is willed to Stephen Stallings. Bobby Croom's quick temper to Joseph Temple. Tony Pearce's position in athletics to Carlton Debnam. Annie Pearl Woodard's dignified ways go to Anne Bobbitt. Harriet Pearce leaves her niceness and quiet ways to Gwen Gill. Barbara Ray leaves her bashfulness to Pat Murray. Nancy Alford's intelligence goes to Jean Murray. Dottie Privette's naturally curly hair to Jean Joyner. Rose Chamblee's cuteness to Betsy Massey. Benny Mitchell's friendly ways to Charles White Long. Basil Perry's driver's license goes to Bobby Weathers. Warren Boykin's grin to Robert Jenkins. Billy Joe Bailey leaves his physique to Eddie Bullock. Billy Bolton leaves his height to Donna Mitchell. Talmadge Alford leaves his ability to get married to Chris Shearin. Bobby Horton's ability to drive a school bus is left to Henry Vann Cooke. Kenneth Eddins leaves his ability to sleep in class to his sister Kay. Wayne Boykin leaves his quietness to Henry Bobbitt.

Aubrey Gay's ability to attract Rolesville girls goes to Donald Horton. Betty Bunn's kindness goes to Diane Broughton. Lelon Creech leaves his quietness to all the coming Seniors. Vernon Pearce's bashfulness goes to Leslie Strickland. Wallace Hicks' ability to skip school goes to Tay Draughon. Victor Pace leaves his ability to blush to Freddy Beck. Cordell Page says he needs everything he has, so he is just leaving - thank goodness! As for myself, I leave my position as class testator to some unknown Junior. Lots of luck!

Senior Class Prophecy

Well, classmates, we've had twelve years of fun and fellowship together. Coming to school, working, and playing together have only been a few of the pleasures that we've all shared.

Last night I had a dream. I no longer dreamed of carefree boys and girls. I dreamed about each of you, and it was in the year 1966, ten years from tonight. Since you are concerned, I have decided to share this dream with you before we go our separate ways into the future years.

No, Wallace Hicks isn't married yet. You see, he was a little slow in learning how to tell the difference between phony and genuine diamonds.

On the sidewalks of gay "Paree" we see none other than our "little artists," Nannie V. Williams and Gene Parrish, drawing and painting. They have both learned art so well that they paint with only one hand. (The other hand has learned the art of holding a donation cup.)

Bobby Croom and Cordell (Satch) Page are now playing football for the Washington Redskins.

You might have known that Kenneth Eddins and Basil Perry would always stay close together. They now own the "swankiest" pool parlors and gambling casino in Las Vegas.

Some of the girls figured out a way to keep Aubrey Gay from bragging about how many different girls he dated every week. That's one I can't even figure out.

Joe Pippin has just introduced a new field of study at N.C. State College. This one is called Smoochology. His first and most interested student was Billy Bolton.

Owners of the "Bush Brothers Drive-In Theatre" are Victor Pace, Lelon Creech, Benny Mitchell, and Billy Tant, who sell season tickets to teen-agers. We hear that business is booming!

If you are in the market for a new typewriter, be sure to consider the "Super-speed Error-Proof," just invented by Dottie Privette.

Betty Bunn is still determined to get married. She says that Miss Palmer didn't teach her Home Economics for nothing!

Since he failed as a pharmacist, Warren Boykin has returned to his old job - jerking sodas for Zebulon Drug Company.

After several years, Harriet Pearce has finally proved to the staff at Rex Hospital that she isn't a patient. She's just trying to become a nurse.

Harold Draughon was kept so busy trying to get new cars for all those that he used to wreck that he seldom had time to date Connie. His troubles are over now that he has been elected president of the Ford Motor Company.

Jenny Watkins recently published her own joke book. Be sure to get one. It is made up of all the jokes that she was never able to "catch."

Tony Pearce began his baseball career while at Wakelon. He now plays for the New York Yankees.

Billy Joe Bailey has just taken his place in the movie world. He's so terrific that he replaces two of the once famous stars - Rock Hudson and Tab Hunter.

Dot Baker now writes the "Dot's Advice to the Lovelorn" in the News and Observer.

Alice Watkins is manager of the Advance Chain Stores. She had her beginning in Hunter's Five and Ten Store.

Yvonne Price is an actress in Hollywood and, boy, is she giving Marilyn Monroe competition.

Vernon Pearce and Bobby Horton are instructors at a deaf and dumb school - gee, I can't understand this, for at school they were always talking.

As for Rose Chamblee, she's doing fine since she introduced "wolfsitters" instead of babysitters.

Betty Baker got her start at Wakelon when she was elected homecoming queen. Just the other day, she made headlines when she was named "Miss Universe of '66."

Nancy Alford has just published her second novel. This one is called "How to Get Your Man and Hold Him."

Billy Etheridge, who disappeared from Wakelon High School ten years ago, has just been found on Mars. He tells us that he underestimated the power of his car.

Annie Pearl Woodard studied hard while she was in high school. We see now that she has a degree. A Mrs. Degree, that is!

Barbara Ray has been trying to get her man for quite a while now. Well, for those who are interested, she finally got him.

While I was dreaming, I wandered into the theatre. There I met Wayne Boykin, the new owner.

As for myself, I was sent to China about six months ago as an I. F. Y. E. Delegate. The main purpose of my mission was to find some new and interesting insect specimens.

Teresa,"

As one of my very best friends now and always, I just want to say as I have said many times just how much I think of you & love you. We have known each other since we ~~started~~ started the first grade even before then.
We have, what you might say lived our lives together. We had our ups and downs, but we always seem to go back being friends again.

There as long as I live will I forget that wonderful trip to California and Old Mexico.
If we didn't have a time nobody did.

Now, to get to the present. Just think of the fun that is store for us in the years to come (probably about 3 years for me)

I hope we will continue to be friends as long as we both live & may we both someday get our two old men!

Love always,
Louella

Boy-Boy - gotta run!

There's nothing all possible you like you. Boy! Come on!

(you're not even!) Kenneth our

I see they boy friends will do you in you to come.

Dear

you are a very sweet and cute girl - I have thought a lot of you, since we met in the first grade. I can't ever forget the times we have had together, playing baby dolls, when I lived in the old place home

Well then the time comes when I have to leave you, we moved to Washington, and we had to part for about two years.

Believe, you have a wonderful family stay with them as long as you can, because it will never be the same if you leave them. You know what having a father is, I didn't have very much time to find out before some said that I was once the second was just as good as the first.

With love of Luck Always Dawn Hill

Litch -
- always so amazing!
I hardly know how to begin, but - I've nothing in life I use you of every thing that. Success always in deserve that "one & only" (not that I don't have any doubt!)
as far as the things of the past - just forget about them. I don't hold them against you cause we've shared too many wonderful things.
Keep our friendship and I'll be in every place you go.

Remember this place?
Have got a stack of memories to reach the moon!
